

WALLY ARMSTRONG

Captivate your audience with the nation's leading golf entertainer, speaker and trick shot artist.

After competing in over 300 PGA Tour events with a fifth place finish in the Masters, he gained a lifetime membership to the, PGA , PGA Tour and Champions Tour.

Wally is an accomplished clinician and speaker. Since leaving the PGA Tour in 1984 Wally has participated in over 1000 teaching and speaking events. His clinics are fun and entertaining as he uses familiar objects -- brooms -- footballs -- coat hangers -- hula hoops -

- in unfamiliar ways, as teaching props to help golfers visualize and feel the motions that will help them improve their games. He teaches the way people think -- with images not abstractions. When they learn golf this way it is somewhat more fun and enjoyable as well as easy to remember and apply in their future rounds. He is recognized by his peers as one of the most creative teachers of the game. Hall of Famer, Gary Player, says "Wally is a true master and teaches the feel of the golf swing in a clear, understandable, yet fun way". RECENTLY – honored by GOLF TIPS MAGAZINE as one of the top 25 golf instructors in the world. Video bio: Wally Armstrong Clinics in Action

As a lifetime member of the PGA Tour he has access to some of the top clubs in America to bring groups to. All of the prestigious PGA Tour tournament players clubs are available for his use, and preferred tee times and use of the practice facilities are obtainable. Major corporations find that their clients cherish having their golf games enhanced by some solid teaching much more than just by playing another fancy course.

TOURNAMENTS & EVENTS
